Abbreviated Bulletin for July

This And That — Please excuse this abbreviated issue of TARC Bulletin; however, your editor had some irons in the fire that could not wait. So, you're getting a Reader's Digest condensed version this month.

If you need a tower of about 80 feet, one is available for taking it down in Kempner. For information, contact Mike WA5EQQ via the Monday Night Net, wa5eqq@arrl.net, or at 254.773-3590.

It was terrific seeing Ross W5ANW and Jan W5GNK at the June meeting.

TARC Members Needed for July 4th Parade

Belton's July 4th Parade is lining up in the wings, and TARC needs communicators to help the Belton Chamber of Commerce stage this event.

Many of you have helped before, and others heard the presentation at our June meeting, so you know the procedure. The rest of you can get an assignment at our club meeting on July 1. Or contact Oscar Houser, KD5DGJ; Mike LeFan, WA5EQQ; or Steve Bosshard, NU5D to add your name to the list.

Oh, and have a safe and fun 4th of July!

At Our Next Meeting

Our club meeting on July 1 will focus on the upcoming Independence Day Parade, and we will review our Field Day activity. We'll have a door prize and lots of fun. Meeting time is 7:00 p.m. at the Western Hills Church of Christ in Temple. Come enjoy the refreshments and fellowship.
