Temple Christmas Parade

Monday December 4th

In desperate need of additional volunteers to work the Temple Christmas parade. Only four members have signed up to help. That includes Myron who operates as a rover in the staging area. That leaves only three people to cover five intersections.

There will be two Temple Parks and Recreation employees working each intersection but they are going to be busy on the side avenues of each intersection making sure entrants are entering the staging area correctly, have their entrant number on their entry and handing out rule flyers to drivers. It is TARC's responsibility to make sure the entrant's line up properly on 8th street itself. Please help if you can.

Contact Myron at the Christmas lunch or email or call:
